INT SPECIAL CARLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. LONDON, July 12 .- It is now absolutely ce tain that the false report of Mr. Astor's death was sent out by some maliciously disposed person who wished to annoy and distress the family.

Mr. Astor's physician denies the story most emphatically and pronounces it a base canard. The servants at Mr. Astor's house all wear white ties, and a card sent in by The servants at Mr. Astor's house all wear white ties, and a card sent in by The all wear white ties, and a card sent in by THE day afternoon, and it was the line was the line announcing EVENING WORLD correspondent was brought the death.

THE EVENING WORLD correspondent aftervards sent a note to Mrs. Astor explaining the situation in New York and the contralicting reports that had been received from London inregard to her husband.

In reply Mrs. Astor sent out word that

This is perfectly authentic, and there is no doubt that the stories of his death were without any foundation whatever.

A cable just received from New York states that Manager Bartlett, of the Astor estate, received the announcement of Mr. Astor's death by cable from Mr. Adams, Mr. Astor's agent in nondon. At least the cable was signed by him, and Mr. Bartlett supposed that it was authentic.
